Bringing History to Life

Waterloo Region Museum - The largest community museum in Ontario. Our main gallery tells the story of Waterloo Region and our feature gallery showcases local and travelling exhibits from around the world.

Doon Heritage Village - A picturesque 60 acre living history village that shows visitors what life was like in Waterloo Region in 1914. Features restored historic buildings, farm animals and more.

Joseph Schneider Haus - This c.1816 Mennonite farmhouse, restored to the 1850s, is a National Historic Site.

McDougall Cottage - Learn about the hardworking Scots in this c.1858 limestone labourer's home.

The museum collections include heritage buildings, artifacts and archival materials that represent through time, the rich history and culture of Waterloo Region.

The museums offer a series of interesting and educational programs, exhibits and special events. We also provide professional services such as advice on building restoration, and identification and conservation of artifacts.

Enjoy a year of fun, special events, learning opportunities, gallery exhibits and more!
